General Show Rules

The intent of the show rules is to provide fair competition to the exhibitors and their animals on a non-discriminating basis.

1. All American Boer Goat Association Sanctioned Show Rules apply and American Boer Goat Association Breed Standards.
2. Eligibility of Animals: All goats must be registered in the herd book of a recognized association before time specified. Recognized associations include ABGA, International Boer Goat Association, USBGA and the Canadian Boer Goat Association. Original registration certificates are required, though a copy of a Registration Application, stamped with the date received by one of the listed associations, can be accepted for kids less than 3 months of age. Animals must be registered in the name of the exhibitor and must have been owned by the exhibitor on or before May 9, 2010.
3. Proof of ownership shall be the name on the registration document. Persons showing animals whose registration certificates have signed transfers that have not been processed by the on of the associations listed above must show those animals as agent for the owner on American Boer Goat Association records.
4. Ennobled Herd Book Points: Only goats entered under their ABGA registration number and presenting their ABGA Certificate of Registration will be eligible to earn points for their actual placing in the show as described in the ABGA "Criteria for Ennoblement of a Boer Goat."
5. An exhibitor shall not present an animal to be shown under a judge from whom it was purchased or possession taken within 90 days of show.
6. An exhibitor shall not present an animal to be shown under a judge who is his/her immediate family or employer or employee.
7. An exhibitor shall not knowingly show an animal that does not meet eligibility requirements.
8. Tattoos: All goats must have legible tattoos or other means of permanent identification consistent with its registration certificate or the animal will be disqualified. The top 5 in the class plus
9. The Champion and Reserve Champion goat's tattoos must be read and recorded.
If the animal has a microchip as its permanent identification, the exhibitor is responsible for providing a microchip reader.
10. Classes: All animals must be registered purebred, full blood or percentage blood Boer goats. Percentage doe classes are for goats 50% to under 15/16 blood (94%), Purebred/Full blood classes are for does that are 15/16 blood (94%) and higher 31/32 blood (97%) and higher for bucks. Progeny of fresh does will NOT be allowed in the ring. At the discretion of the judge and the superintendent, goats may be let loose in the ring as a function of judging. The Champion and Reserve Champion classes will be chosen from the first and second place animals in that division of the show.
11. Health papers are not required; however there may be a health inspection upon arrival and before unloading. Any animal with any contagious diseases including, but not limited to, pink eye, sore mouth, ringworm, or abscesses in any stage will not be admitted. In the case of a dispute, a veterinarian will be called at the owner's expense. Animals refused for health reasons are required to stay in their vehicle and will not be shown. Please be considerate of the animals of other exhibitors by not bringing those goats that may be refused entry for health reasons.
12. At the discretion of the judge and the superintendent, goats may be let loose in the ring as a function of judging. The Champion and Reserve Champion classes will be chosen from the first and second place animals in that division of the show. Any doe over 24 months of age that has not kidded and cannot prove a current pregnancy will not be allowed in the show.
13. Exhibitor liability – Each exhibitor will solely be responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury, or damage done to, or occasioned by, or arising from, any animal or article exhibited by him/her. Exhibitor agrees to indemnify, and save harmless, the Chino Fairgrounds and all hosts, agents and employees of the Autumn fest from all Claims, demands, damage, costs, expenses or liability costs, suits or actions of every name, kind and description, brought forth from or on account of, injuries to death of any person including but not limited to workmen, and the public, or damage to property resulting from the performance of the exhibitor or its entries. Neither party shall request apportionment of liability by a jury.
